Table POL20_3: As you may know, the Florida legislature has passed a bill – labeled by opponents as the ‘Don’t Say Gay’ bill – limiting the teaching of sexual orientation and gender identity to Florida school students. Some say that limiting these discussions will protect children from inappropriate classroom topics, while others say it will block important conversations about LGBTQ issues. To what extent do you support or oppose the following items in the bill?

Allowing parents to sue school districts over alleged violations of sexual orientation and gender identity discussions in schools
