Table OULFIC11_1: As you may already know, there have recently been legal settlements in the U.S. requiring pharmaceutical companies and pharmacies to pay billions of dollars for their role in fueling the opioid epidemic. State and local governments are expected to use the funds to address opioid addiction and overdose in their communities. How confident are you, if at all, that the settlements will help with each of the following?
Destigmatizing opioid addiction

Table OULFIC11_5: As you may already know, there have recently been legal settlements in the U.S. requiring pharmaceutical companies and pharmacies to pay billions of dollars for their role in fueling the opioid epidemic. State and local governments are expected to use the funds to address opioid addiction and overdose in their communities. How confident are you, if at all, that the settlements will help with each of the following?
Increasing access to opioid addiction rehabilitation and treatment in the U.S.
